PMI SE Volunteer of the Year Program Description

PMI Sweden Chapter (PMI SE) values and honors volunteers who have contributed to the members and/or development of the chapter during the year.

PMI SE annually recognizes volunteers for exceptional achievements and noteworthy contributions to PMI and PMI SE. PMI SE Volunteer of the Year Awards application forms are issued prior to the end of each year, and the deadline to submit applications is December 31st.

Minimum Award Eligibility Requirements:

PMI SE members are invited to submit awards applications if the volunteer have met the following eligibility requirements.

- The volunteer must be in good standing with the Project Management Institute (PMI) and Sweden Chapter for the period covered by the nomination
- Working as a volunteer in PMI SE

Application Procedure:

Upon meeting the minimum award eligibility requirements, PMI SE members may continue with the application process as outlined below.

1. Review and complete award nomination application included in the Awards Application Kit. Each award nomination must be accompanied with an application for that award.
2. All processes, activity descriptions, results and additional supporting documents are to be embedded into the application.
3. Nomination application(s) must be concise, yet contain enough information to represent the award. Applications will be accepted in electronic format only with the files imbedded into the application (Note: to insert a word document into the application form, go to “Insert”, then “Object”, click on “Create from file” and then “Display as icon”. Use your browser to locate the file.)
4. The application and all process descriptions, activities descriptions, and results must be in English. Supporting documents may be in the component’s national language.
5. Nomination application(s) are due to PMI Sweden Chapter by December 31th.
6. All nomination applications will receive confirmation of receipt and eligibility from PMI SE within ten (10) business days.

Award Nomination Process

How is an individual nominated?

Either PMI SE board of directors or PMI SE members are invited to submit award nomination applications for the PMI SE Volunteer of the Year. Self-nomination is not permitted.

Review Process

A verification of the awards eligibility will take place by PMI SE upon receipt of nomination applications beginning of January. The PMI SE Award Review Committee will make the final determination on awards recipients.

Making project management indispensable for business results.®

The PMI SE Awards Review Committee judges the awards applications independently using a scoring evaluation process based on the individual award criteria. PMI SE staff compile all scores. The PMI SE Awards Review committee then holds a meeting where the final award winners are determined based on the scores.

One or more award winners may be selected. The PMI SE Awards Review Committee is not obligated to select a winner for an award if none of the applications meet awards standards.

Challenge

Nominees or nominators are not allowed to participate in scoring.

Notification of Award Recipient

Award recipients will be notified no later than end of February. The announcement and presentation of awards will be made at the PMI SE Annual Meeting/Speakers Dinner. Award winners are requested to keep confidential their award notification until that time.

Presentation

Recognition will be made at the PMI SE Annual Meeting/Speakers Dinner.
